Silver Award at a Glance

7 Steps to the Silver Award

Prerequisite:

Go on a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action™ project.

Step 1:

Identify issues that you're passionate about and how they affect your community.

Step 2:

Build your team. Work with a team of up to three other Cadettes or on your own. Either way, plan to partner with the community.

Step 3:

Explore your community to learn more about issues that interest you. This can be your neighborhood, your school, Girl Scouts, your place of worship, or another community of interest.

Step 4:

Choose your Silver Award project based on your passions and what you've learned by exploring your community and talking to others.

Step 5:

Make a plan and submit your Project Proposal to carry out your Silver Award Take Action project.

Step 6:

Put your plan in motion. You and your team will each spend about 50 hours to earn the award. Planning time counts too! Use the Time Log to track your time.

Step 7:

Spread the word and submit your final report. Inspire others! You can give a presentation to another Girl Scout troop, your local Girl Scout community, or to students at school. Turn in your Final Report to your council before September 30 after completing 8th grade.

Then...

Celebrate! Check out the Events Calendar to find the dates of the Older Girl Recognition Ceremonies held in the spring and summer.

How to Use This Workbook

This workbook is designed to lead you through the 7 Steps to the Silver Award. Use the sample Silver Award Take Action project in the template pages to follow all the examples provided throughout this workbook.

If you need more detailed explanations, review available resources with your leader or adult volunteer. The Adult Guide for Earning the Silver Award goes into more detail; the Volunteer Toolkit has Silver Award meeting plans; the Girl Scout Activity Zone has helpful videos and self-guided activities to help you explore the key requirements of the Silver Award; gsLearn has on-demand Silver Award training.

Excited to earn your Silver Award? Check these off first.

- ☐ You're a registered Girl Scout Cadette (in grades 6–8).
- ☐ You've earned a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action project.
- ☐ You will be able to finish your project and submit paperwork by September 30 after 8th grade is completed.
- ☐ You're excited to plan a Take Action project with the required elements by: practicing leadership, addressing a real root cause of a community issue you care about, and creating a plan to make your project sustainable.
- ☐ Attend a Silver Award Training (optional but highly recommended)

What do Silver Award Girl Scouts say?

“Do what you love while helping others!”

“Definitely do it. We learned a lot!”

“Be realistic.”

“We enjoyed giving back to our community!”

“Plan, and plan more.”

“Time management is the hardest.”

“Just start! Don't put it off because you're looking for the perfect project.”

“Ask for help!”

Key Elements of the Silver Award Project

The Silver Award Take Action project may be different than other projects you've done as a Girl Scout.

If you earned a Bronze Award, some of the steps will be familiar. If you didn't earn a Bronze Award—that's OK! Any Girl Scout Cadette can rock a Silver Award Take Action project.

Take Action vs. Community Service

Before you begin, it's helpful to understand the difference between a Take Action project and a Community Service project. Here's the difference:

Take Action	Community Service
A long-term project with sustainable and ongoing influence that addresses an issue's root cause	A short-term effort that helps something or someone fulfill an immediate need
Done WITH the community	Done FOR the community
Creating a unique initiative to address an issue's root cause	Joining an existing effort to solve an issue
Creating and leading your own team of volunteers	Joining an existing team , usually as a volunteer
Setting the goals and leading a team to achieve them	Working toward a goal that's set by others

Often, a community service project idea can be developed into a Take Action project. For example, you may want to collect items for a crowded pet shelter. That's a service project, of course. But if you partner with the shelter to understand the root causes of overcrowded shelters and come up with a solution, like workshops to educate others about spaying and neutering pets, that's a Take Action project.

Project Requirements

Take Action projects have up to five elements: the Girl Scout Gold Award requires all five; the Girl Scout Silver Award requires three; and the Girl Scout Bronze Award requires two.

	Leadership	Root Cause	Sustainable	Measurable	National and/or Global Link
Bronze Juniors	Required element	Required element	Introduction of new concept
Silver Cadettes	Required element	Required element	Required element	Introduction of new concept	Introduction of new concept
Gold Seniors/Ambassadors	Required element	Required element	Required element	Required element	Required element

Required element Introduction of new concept

To earn the Silver Award, you need to:

- Show leadership.
- Research and address a root cause of an issue in your community.
- Create a plan to make the project sustainable.
- Optional: “Try” to make your project measurable.
- Optional: “Try” to make a national and/or global link.

These are the key elements. If they are new to you—no worries! We’ll identify how to fulfill each of these requirements in this workbook. You’ll be a Silver Award Take Action project expert in no time.

Prerequisites

Before getting started, make sure you have completed a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action project.

In your Silver Award Project Proposal, you will be asked to provide the name of the Cadette Journey completed and the completion date.

In addition, you will be asked to reflect on these questions:

- What did you do?
- What did you learn?
- What will you do better, or differently, next time?

This reflection will help you have a successful Silver Award project.

Attend a GSK training to help prepare you to earn the Silver Award.

Our trainings are all virtual through Zoom. Dates can be found on the Events Calendar.

Step 1: Identify issues.

How to start? Begin with your passions! What makes you excited? What do you love to do? What have you always longed to know more about?

Then, look to your community. What are the challenges? Who could use some help? Is there a way to bring your passions to the community to make the world a better place?

There are no wrong answers—no pressure. In this step, you're simply exploring, jotting down what comes to mind.

Check out the sample Silver Award Take Action project in the template pages to follow all the examples provided throughout this workbook.

Use the chart on the next page to help you find the issues that interest you.

Tip: Once you begin this step, start tracking your time so you don't get stuck trying to recreate it at the end. Each Cadette should spend approximately 50 hours working toward the Silver Award. Track your time using the Time Log found in the template section, a spreadsheet, or a piece of paper—just don't lose it.

What issues are you passionate about?

Why are these issues important to you?

How do the issues affect your community?

Environment

*Trees are essential for so many animals.
I see a lot of trees being cut down to make room for new buildings.*

There is less space for the birds and their nests.

Education

I want to be a teacher and I enjoy working with kids.

All children should be able to learn and have fun while doing it. More tools are needed to assist teachers in keeping learning fun.

Match your talents and skills with the issues you identified and the people you want to help using the Take Action Brainstorming Decision Bracket, which can be found in the template pages.

Step 2: Build your team.

To meet the Silver Award Leadership requirement, you'll need to build a team. You've got options:

- Small team model: Work with a team of up to three other Cadettes. Your team can be made up of Girl Scouts from the same troop, other troops, or individually registered Girl Scouts. Each Girl Scout must play an active role in choosing, planning, developing, and completing the team's project, and must have their own role and responsibilities in the project.
- Solo model: You can create and implement a project on your own. Recruiting and engaging your peers and/or adult volunteers from your network and around your community will be necessary to complete specific tasks.

Teamwork makes the dream work.

Since each Cadette will spend 50 hours on this project, focus on an issue you are really interested in. Don't just pick an issue your friend is doing because you want to work with them.

- Respect your teammates and their different points of view.
- Decide on team rules—use the Girl Scout Law as your guide.
- Contribute your share.
- Have a conflict? Resolve it quickly by talking things out.

No matter which option you choose:

- Plan to partner with community members to learn about your issue, discover the root cause(s), make a plan, and take action. Community members might be teachers or school administrators, neighbors, business owners, religious group leaders, or staff at a local community center working on the issue you are interested in. They should be experts in the issue you're working on.
- Show active leadership by involving others in your efforts and directing them to help you meet the goals of your project. Keep track of who helps you and how so you can thank them upon completion and list them in your Final Report.
- You should have the support of at least one registered, background-checked adult Girl Scout volunteer who is responsible for safety and Silver Award procedures.
- Try it: Having a project advisor is not required but can be very helpful. Lots of people are happy to play a part in helping a Girl Scout make the world a better place.
- The Final Report will ask you to identify and reflect on your individual leadership role, responsibilities, and experience.

A project advisor is an adult who is an expert that has some level of knowledge, skills, or access to resources that can help with your project.

While parents/legal guardians and troop leaders can be project advisors, try to expand outside your familiar circles and grow your network!

If you've chosen a group for your team, hold your first meeting.

Explore how you can collaborate. Play a game or two to get the ball rolling—you might try “spider web!” First, form a circle. Then, toss a ball of yarn or string to each other. The person receiving the yarn tells the group a characteristic about themselves before tossing the yarn to the next person. The yarn should be held tightly and above the ground at all times. Use this activity to discuss how the members all depend on each other. If a single person pulls the yarn, it affects everyone in the group; if one person's yarn is cut, the whole web is broken. Have fun!

For more team-building activities, ask your adult volunteer, advisor, or another trusted adult to check out the Volunteer Toolkit Silver Award Meeting Plans.

Step 3: Explore your community.

1. Draw a community map to keep track of what you see and your ideas for change.

As you explore, remember that a community can be a physical place on a map or a group of people.

2. List the names and contact info of those you meet in your community who might be able to help you with your project.

Community experts are important because they can offer their knowledge or advise you on how to take action on the issue(s) you are thinking about addressing through your project.

Name and Contact Info	Organization	How might they help?
Teacher, neighbor	Neighborhood preschool	Ideas on how to engage preschool students in learning
Carpenter, local store owner	Local hardware store	Ideas for the materials to use for the hands-on shoe-tying tool

3. Learn what others know of your issue.

Chat with the people you know to learn about your issue in the community. It's another way of finding a project idea that might interest you.

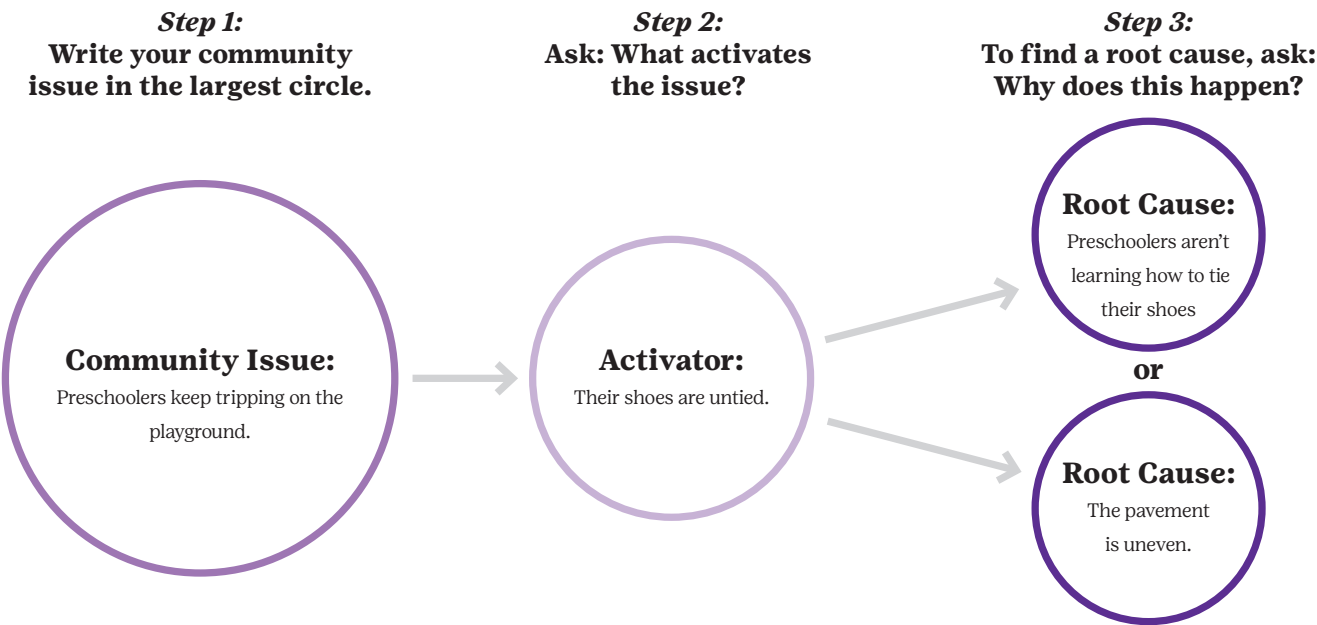

Who I Talked to	Issue(s) They Suggested	What Causes the Issue	What Worked in the Past	What Didn't Work
Teachers	Students tripping	Shoelaces untied	Learning the skills at home	School nurse teaching students
School nurse	Students needing more support to learn how to properly tie their shoes	Students not getting enough practice	Presentation on how to tie shoes	Students forgot how to tie shoes after the presentation because there was no practice involved
Parents	No time to teach shoe tying	Busy schedules	Shoes without laces	Can't always wear shoes without laces

4. Research root causes by asking what causes an issue and why, then ask why this happens again.

Understanding the root causes of your issue is an important part of a Take Action project. By looking at the root causes of an issue, you figure out why the issue is happening in the first place and then you can create a solution to stop it from happening again.

Uncovering root causes may seem hard but it can be surprisingly easy. Brainstorm with your team, use colorful sticky notes to track your ideas, or create your own mind map diagram like the one shown here. Keep asking “Why?” and you may find that there is more than one root cause!

Use the blank mind mapping diagram in the template pages to find the root cause of your project's issue.

Step 4: Choose your Silver Award project.

You've thought about your interests and passions. You've explored your community. You've talked to others, and you've researched to understand root causes of one or more issues. The moment you've been waiting for has arrived: it's time to choose a project!

Make it official by writing it down:

The issue my project will address is...

I care about education and I like working with children. I learned that lots of preschoolers are tripping on the school playground because they are not properly tying their shoes. The school nurse has seen an increase of injuries and is concerned someone will hurt themselves badly.

It matters because...

Injuries at school take away from children's fun and learning time. It's important that all children are safe and able to play. Mastering a task like shoe tying will help preschoolers be more independent and confident.

My target audience (who is going to benefit) is...

Preschoolers and school staff.

A root cause of my issue is...

Preschoolers are not learning how to tie their shoes. Maybe they are being taught, but they aren't remembering it. It is clear they need more practice in learning to tie their shoes.

My team's project idea plans to address the root cause by...

Developing a workshop to teach preschoolers to tie their shoes, with a hands-on tool to help them practice. The hands-on tool will stay at the school so the students can practice whenever they want.

Still not sure about your project? Try these to help you make a decision:

Review the info you've collected. Check out your issues chart, your community map, and the ideas you gathered from talking to others. If you're working with a team, sort the information you've gathered together and rank your ideas.

What matters to you most? Or, where could you or your team make the most positive change? Make a list of pros and cons you are considering. Use the Pros and Cons Chart in the template pages.

Feeling overwhelmed? Some issues are complicated and have a lot of pieces. It might help to narrow your focus. Can you break the issue down and take action on one part? Contact awards@gskentuckiana.org if you need help.

Step 5: Make a plan and submit your Project Proposal.

By now, you have chosen a Silver Award Take Action project and are ready to make a plan to get it done.

Planning ahead helps your Silver Award Take Action project go smoothly. Answer the questions below, then review the Silver Award checklist in the template pages at the end of this workbook to decide if your plan is complete or if more planning is needed.

Your plan is just that: a plan. If it changes over time, that's OK!

Question	Example	Your Answer
How will your unique talents and leadership skills be used in this project?	Gloria loves to build things, so she will lead the details of the hands-on tool. Ava likes research, so she will lead the gathering of information on fine motor and developmental skills for preschoolers for the workshop materials. Zuri prefers organizing and public speaking, so she will lead the scheduling and operational details for the actual workshop events.

Question	Example	Your Answer
What community experts will you work with?	Gloria will meet with a teacher and the owner of the local hardware store. Ava will meet with preschooler parents and teachers. Zuri will meet with the preschool administrators.
How will you create a plan to make your project sustainable?* Three possibilities are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create a permanent solution that can be used after the project is complete. 2. Educate and inspire others in the community or within Girl Scouts to be part of the change. 3. Advocate to change a rule, regulation, or law and encourage others to join. 	The team chooses Option 2: They will present workshops to students at the preschool and provide the workshop outline and permanent tool to the school who will continue to teach shoe tying.
Proposed Start Date	Fall of 7th Grade
Proposed End Date	Fall of 8th Grade
Is the time frame realistic? (Y/N)	Yes

* Your project is sustainable if the impact lasts, even after the project is over. Putting a plan into place to sustain your project is required; however, how the project is actually sustained is often outside Girl Scouts' influence or control. See The Adult Guide for Earning the Silver Award for specific examples.

Silver Award projects sometimes require money or nonmonetary donations of goods. If you think your project will require this, then please estimate supplies/donations needed and potential costs.

Example Budget Worksheet:

Supplies Needed	Estimate How Much They Will Cost
Pressed wood	$25
Yarn	$10
Nails	$8
Copies of workshop outline	$5

Estimated Budget Worksheet:

Supplies Needed	Estimate How Much They Will Cost

Take Action projects often focus on education and advocacy. These generally don't cost very much. If your Silver Award Take Action project has a budget that seems unrealistic, re-evaluate. Is the project truly a Take Action project?

For the Silver Award Final Report, use the Budget Worksheet in the template pages to list the items you received (including troop funds, money earned, donations, etc.), the cost of supplies purchased, and to identify who and where they are from.

Funding Your Girl Scout Silver Award Project

What if your project idea will cost money?

What are you allowed to do?

You and your troop mates can discuss whether or not some funds from the troop treasury can go toward a Silver Award Project. It is ok to set aside some cookie profits, for example, if your troop agrees. Your troop can also do an extra money-raising activity following the usual permissions that troop leaders know about for anything beyond fall product and cookies.

As a girl member of Girl Scouts, you can't ask for money, materials, or services.

This is considered fundraising by the IRS and Girl Scout policies—and for a lot of reasons (legal and otherwise), adults are the only people who can raise money for Girl Scouting. Since adults can solicit money, work with an adult partner if you need a donation of materials or funds. You can describe your project to others or write a letter, but an adult has to do the actual ask and sign on the dotted line. Please see pages 13-15 of the Finance Guide for rules on money-earning.

Even though you cannot make the ask, there are still options:

- Break open your piggy bank. You can use your own money to fund your project.
- Sell stuff. You can have a garage sale, a used book sale, a handmade crafts sale, a plant sale, a bake sale...are you starting to get the idea?
- Ask your parents or grandparents to help out. You can ask your family for cash, but not anyone else... not your friends, not your neighbors, not your teachers at school.
- Ask friends and neighbors for donations of time and stuff, such as clothing for a clothing drive or that pile of bricks left over from your neighbor's backyard project
- Earn money to fund your project. Babysitting, car washes, lawn mowing, weeding, etc. You should not take over someone else's job for less money, but if it's available and up for grabs, you can use it for money-earning.

- Ask your troop to use troop funds. As long as the whole troop agrees, you can use troop funds for your project.
- Have an adult ask for a donation from a community organization or business.

If what you want to do costs too much:

- It's better to succeed with a smaller project that is within your budget than to be unable to complete a larger project because it exceeds your budget.
- Be realistic about what you can and can't do. Work with your adult advisor to develop a reasonable budget for your project.
- If your resources are not sufficient for you to realistically accomplish your goal, then you need to rethink the project.

You absolutely SHOULD NOT:

- Ask businesses or friends and neighbors for money by yourself. Solicitation of money from organizations is only done by adults. You must work with an adult to do this, as they will have to sign off on any paperwork for you.
- Sell retail items or selling via the internet to earn money.
- Use your project as a fundraiser for any organization, including Girl Scouts. Silver Award Projects are not fundraisers.
- Hold raffles, bingos, poker night, or other games of chance to raise money. GSUSA is very clear that games of chance are not an acceptable activity or means of money earning for Girl Scouts.
- Girl Scouts pursuing their Silver Award can raise awareness for another organization. If you plan an awareness event, create an item or product as part of your project, it should be budgeted to be as self-supporting as possible. For example, if you host an event to raise awareness, any proceeds must be funneled back into the Silver Award project. For example, the fee to attend an event is $10 per person with a cost of $8/person resulting in proceeds of $2 per person. The Girl Scout can use those proceeds to further support her Take Action Project.

- As a Girl Scout, you cannot state or imply in any way that your project is raising funds for another organization or present them with cash or checks. You can say that your project benefits the organization, but not raise funds for that organization.

Please feel free to use the Council Fund Development team as a resource when crafting letters, strategizing about how to approach donor prospects, etc. We have significant collective expertise in this area and would be happy to be of assistance or counsel. We are on your team! Reach out to Dusty Siravo on the Fund Development team at dsiravo@gskentuckiana.org.

1. Before you begin solicitation, please reach out to discuss your fundraising plans. Solicitation of individuals and local businesses is acceptable.
2. Please keep in mind that gifts made to a girl as she and her advisor are completing the Gold or Silver Award plan are gifts only, and will not be subject to any tax deductibility because they are not receipted by GSK. It is important that donors understand this distinction.
3. Please make sure that all contributors receive a "thank you" note. Gifts received on behalf of a GSK program are representing the GSK brand, and we want to make sure all contributors are stewarded properly. Thank you notes may be included in the final report as documentation of solicitation activities undertaken.

Try it!

Making your project measurable and making a national and/or global link is optional. Why take these steps? They will make your project stronger and help you prepare for the Girl Scout Gold Award.

Can you make your project measurable?

As you work on your project, try to set one goal that will help you measure your project's success. Think about what you can count to show the impact you've made on your community issue.

Possibilities include:

- the number of people the project helped.
- the number of people who got involved.
- a number that shows the change in a community's need (survey before and after).

Write down your goal in your Project Proposal.

Can you make a national and/or global link?

Your project has a national and/or global link when you can identify how other people and places address your issue.

You can:

- Investigate how people in other communities or other parts of the world address your issue.
- Ask: What kinds of programs do they have in place? How can you learn from these? Can you incorporate what you learn about other communities into your project?

Share what you learn in your Project Proposal.

Complete your Silver Award Project Proposal.

When you're ready, make it official:

Use this workbook to help you complete the Silver Award Proposal form. Once it is submitted to Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana, the proposal will be reviewed by the GSK Highest Awards team. The proposal MUST be approved before work begins. Cadettes can expect to receive an email with a decision about the approval within 8 to 10 business days. If the plan is not approved, the Cadette(s) will be able to edit the plan and submit it again.

Tip: The Silver Project Proposal must be submitted and approved BEFORE continuing work on your project. If you are working in a group, fill it out together!

Step 6: Put your plan in motion.

Ready to take action? It's time to put your plan in motion.

Make a list of things you need to do as shown in the chart below. If you're working in a team, decide what tasks each member will do. Then, decide when each item on the list needs to be completed.

Silver Award Take Action Project: To-Do List

Example	Task	How? Supplies needed?	Date task needs to be completed
Gloria	Develop the hands-on tool.	Discuss ideas with the carpenter and preschool teacher.	March 7
	Get supplies for the hands-on tool.	Donation from the hardware store: pressed wood, nails, and yarn.	April 8
Ava	Learn about fine motor skills and developmental stages of preschoolers.	Talk with a preschool teacher or other professional who works with preschoolers.	March 1
	Find fun ways to teach preschoolers to tie their shoes.	Review and sign the online Internet Safety Pledge with my troop leader, then research online.	March 21
Zuri	Schedule shoe-tying workshops.	Discuss possible dates with preschool administrators, then check with the team for their availability.	March 4
	Promote the workshops to preschooler families.	Create flyers advertising the workshops.	April 2
Ava and Gloria; Zuri review/edit	Create a step-by-step guide for using the tool to leave with the school.	Create on a computer and print out several copies.	May 10
Ava, Gloria, Zuri	Host the workshop.	Bring the tool and guide.	May 20

You and each of your team members must keep track of your own time spent on the project. See the start of Gloria's Time Log in the example below:

Date	Task	Time Spent	Running Total
3/7	Meet with the carpenter.	1 hour	1 hour
4/8	Get supplies.	1 hour	2 hours
4/20	Build sample hands-on tool.	4 hours	6 hours
5/1	Practice how to instruct.	2 hours	8 hours
5/10	Test with the preschool teacher.	2 hours	10 hours
6/1	Build more hands-on tools to leave with the school after the workshop.	8 hours	18 hours

You've seen Gloria's example above. Use the blank To-Do List and blank Time Log in the template pages to track your own work.

As you work on your project, take photos or videos to document the work you do. You can use these in Step 7: Spread the Word and share them in your Silver Award Final Report.

Be sure to wear your Girl Scout uniform, if you have one, when taking action in your community; people may be more eager to help you when they know that you are a Girl Scout!

Step 7: Spread the word and submit your Final Report.

Spread the word by sharing the story of your project.

Why? Because when you share your project, you inspire others—and you bring attention to the important issue you were addressing. Telling your story is one of the best ways to celebrate all that you have accomplished!

There are lots of possibilities. You can give a presentation to another Girl Scout troop, your local Girl Scout community, or to students at school. Create a visual display for a local library or community center. Submit an article to the local news or your school website. How will you spread the word?

Turn in your Final Report!

Congratulations! You've completed your Silver Award Take Action project.

Get started on your Final Report by reflecting on your experience.

- ☐ Describe in detail what you did for your leadership role.
- ☐ In completing this project, what did you discover about yourself?
- ☐ What skills did you gain, and how will these skills help you in the future?
- ☐ What part of your project would you change if you could start over, and why?

Each project team will submit a Final Report about your project to your leader and council.

The report will contain individual sections for you to share your role and reflect. Once your Final Report is approved, it's official: You're a Silver Award Girl Scout!

Keep a copy of your final report for your own records and submit before September 30 after completing 8th grade.

Steps to ensure that the Final Report is approved:

- The project is approved by Girl Scouts of Kentuckiana. The criteria include:
 - ▶ The Final Report is complete. It includes the actual plan description, reflections by each Cadette, the Signature sheet, a Time Log for each Cadette, and a Budget Worksheet.
 - ▶ The Final Report matches the approved proposal fairly well.
 - ▶ The Final Report is received by GSK by September 30 of the year you or the oldest team member completes the 8th grade.

Deadlines for various recognitions:

- If your Silver Award is approved by February 1, your name will appear in council publications distributed at the spring GSK Annual Meeting.
- If your Silver Award is approved by April 10, you may be recognized at the late April/early May Older Girl Recognition Ceremonies or at a later ceremony.
- If your Silver Award is approved by May 10, you may be recognized at early June Older Girl Recognition Ceremonies.
- Of course, you and your troop can plan a celebration at any time after your Silver Award has been approved.

What if you didn't meet all of your goals?

The Silver Award is a leadership award. The most important outcomes are the ones you gain for yourself: improved confidence, better organization, stronger teamwork, and more. It's less about the perfect final product and more about what you discover along the way!

A special thank you to Girl Scouts San Diego for creating the guide that inspired this national template, to Girl Scouts of Chesapeake Bay for their definition of active leadership, to Girl Scout River Valleys inspiration on our "what Silver Award Girl Scouts say" and especially to the 2022 Silver Award Working Group for informing the updated Silver Award Guidelines for our Movement at every step:

Girl Scouts of Connecticut, Girl Scouts of Kansas Heartland, Girl Scouts of Nassau County, Girl Scouts—North Carolina Coastal Pines, Girl Scouts Northeast Kansas and Northwest Missouri, Girl Scouts of Northern California, Girl Scouts of San Geronio, Girl Scouts of Southern Appalachians, Girl Scouts of Western Pennsylvania, and Girl Scouts of Western Washington.

Now, it's your turn!

Use the following template pages to plan your project.

SAMPLE: Silver Award Take Action Project Shoe-Tying Success

Ava, Zuri, and Gloria were excited to earn their Girl Scout Silver Award. They agreed to be extra observant at school and in their neighborhood to discover potential issues that could be the focus of their Take Action project.

They came together as a team to share ideas, and they chose several ideas to explore. Their leader helped them connect with community members who could help them learn more. One of their observations was that lots of younger students don't tie their shoes. They researched to find the root cause: the students were not learning how to tie their shoes because they needed more hands-on practice.

They showed leadership by partnering with a preschool, and by each individual Girl Scout handling different aspects of the project. Ava took the lead on research, Zuri scheduled calls with experts to learn more, and Gloria worked with a small team of volunteers to create a hands-on tool to help students practice tying their shoes. Together, they developed workshops that they led at the preschool to put their program into action. Ava doesn't feel comfortable speaking publicly, so she helped set up and took attendance while Zuri and Gloria presented to students and teachers.

They felt proud when the preschoolers gained the skill and confidence to tie their shoes. And they made their project sustainable by teaching preschoolers to tie their shoes, and by sharing their workshop outline and hands-on tool with the preschool, which will continue to encourage the students to practice. They made a lasting impact!

Their troop leader explained the concepts of measurable and national and/or global link. They knew these weren't required for the Silver Award, but they made a goal to teach at least 50 students to tie their shoes. They decided to keep track of attendance at their presentations, just to practice for the Gold Award. They also discussed how their project links to a national and/or global issue because the increased demands on parents' time leads to a higher demand for more hands-on life skills programs at school.

Mind Mapping Diagram

Step 1:
Write your community issue.

(Place the answer in the inner circle.)

Step 2:
Ask: “What activates
the issue?”
Then, explore further.

(Place answers in circles just outside the community issue.)

Step 3:
To find the root cause,
ask: “Why does this happen?”

(Place answers in outer circles.)

Try it!

Write your community issue in the center circle. Ask yourself: What activates the issue? Write your answers in the circles closest to the center circle (add more if you need to). Then, explore further. Ask: “Why does this happen?” Place these answers in the smaller outer circles, like in our example on page 13. Add as many of these circles as you like. These are your root causes. Select one or two root causes and you have the foundation of a strong Silver Award Take Action project!
